

PRESENTING THE 2015-16 SUMTER LITTLE THEATRE SEASON

TUNA DOES VEGAS Written by Ed Howard, Joe Sears, Jaston Williams
August 13-16 and 20-23, 2015

The lovable and eccentric characters of Tuna, “the third smallest town in Texas” put the sin in Sin City in this hilarious new installment from the creators of “Greater Tuna.” When conservative radio personality Alres Struvie announces on air that he’s taking his wife Bertha Bumiller to Las Vegas to renew their wedding vows in front of an Elvis impersonator, the whole town wants to go along for the ride. An all-male cast will portray all the characters in this send-up on life in rural America: men, women, Vegas showgirls and the King himself.

AGNES OF GOD Written by John Pielmeier
October 15-18 and 22-25, 2015

A court-appointed psychiatrist, Dr. Martha Livingstone, is summoned to a convent to assess the sanity of a young novitiate who is accused of murdering her newborn. The mother superior is determined to keep Agnes away from the doctor, saying that her questions will do more harm than good. This arouses the psychiatrist’s suspicions further. Who killed the infant? Who fathered the child? Dr. Livingstone’s search for answers forces all three women to re-examine the meaning of faith and the value of love leading to a dramatic, compelling climax.

MIRACLE ON 34TH STREET From the novel by Valentine Davies.
Based on the 20th Century Fox Motion Picture
December 3-6 and 10-13, 2015

Kris Kringle, an old man in a retirement home, gets a job working as Santa for Macy’s. He spreads waves of good will with the Macy’s customers and New York’s retail world by referring parents to other stores to find exactly the toy their child has asked for. The Macy’s staff sees him as dangerous and delusional and plots to have Kris carted off to a psychiatric hospital. He ends up in a court competency hearing. In a dramatic decision, the court confirms Kris as the true Santa, allowing countless children to experience the joy of fantasy. Yes, there is a Santa Claus.

THE MOUNTAINTOP Written by Katori Hall
February 11-14 and 18-21, 2016

On April 3, 1968, after delivering one of his most memorable speeches, Dr. Martin Luther King retires to his room at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tennessee. In this powerful reimagining of the events on the night before his assassination, King encounters a mysterious stranger who forces him to confront his destiny and his legacy to his people.

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT’S DREAM

Written by William Shakespeare
March 10-13 and 17-20, 2016
Shakespeare’s beloved comedy portrays the marriage of Theseus, Duke of Athens and Hippolyta. The story explores the adventure of four young Athenian lovers and a group of six amateur actors, “rude mechanicals”, who are controlled and manipulated by the fairies who inhabit the forest in which the action of the play is set.

THE FULL MONTY: The Broadway Musical
Book by Terrence McNally | Music and Lyrics by David Yazbek
April 28-May 1 and May 5-8, 2016

Six unemployed Buffalo, NY steelworkers, who are low on both cash and prospects, decide to present a strip act at a local club after seeing their wives’ enthusiasm for a touring company of Chippendales. They boast that their show will be better than the Chippendales dancers because they’ll go “the full monty”, strip all the way. The six must work through their fears, self-consciousness and short comings, and overcome their inner demons to find strength and camaraderie.
